

Article for Practice Web sites

My Care Record

The people caring for you need access to your health and care record in order to make the best decisions about your diagnosis and treatment. For this to happen more quickly and to improve the care you receive, a new process has been put in place. My Care Record allows health and care professionals directly involved in your care, access to information about you.

To find out more please go to www.mycarerecord.org.uk

To find out how your information will be used, please click here